

I am unalterably opposed to the attempt by the CBA to weaken Indiana's state Telephone Privacy Act. The CBA's argument is self-serving and specious, and should be vigorously resisted by the FCC.